

Allowing cell phone use in flight on commercial aircraft is a bad idea! It would compromise my ability as a flight attendant to maintain order in an emergency, communicate important safety information and distract passengers against possible terrorist threats.

I oppose the use of cell phones aboard the airplane.